

Jet Shooting Device, with light and sound signal of the water level

1015074

Jet shooting device, with light and sound signals that signals the water level in the container at the back of the device.

Device for shooting with a jet of water into an opening, 10 cm in diameter, located in the middle of the device at a height of 75 cm from the ground. On the back side a device is mounted for signaling the level of water that passes through the opening and the knee and flows into the measuring vessel. The container has a volume of about 6 liters. The built-in device includes a sound and light signal on the stand.

Technical specifications

- Material: iron/aluminium
- Color: red
- Signal: yellow light and signal sound
- Height: 110 cm
- Width: 60 cm
- Water hole diameter: Ø 10 cm
- Water tank volume: 5 litara

