

Rope protection Caterpillar P68 Petzl

1029120

The SET CATERPILLAR articulated protector helps protect a moving rope from abrasion. The number of modules can be adapted to the terrain.

Caterpillar P68 rope protection from the world famous manufacturer of sports and professional climbing equipment Petzl, serves as protection for climbing ropes during work at height. Protects the rope from damage and breakage while pulling it over rough terrain and sharp edges. Articulated parts adapt to the shape of the terrain, and enable quick and easy installation.

Details:

- To help protect a moving rope from abrasion
- Modules are connected with quick links: the number of modules can be varied according to the terrain
- Each module can be positioned independently to adapt to the terrain
- Product sold as a kit: 4 modules + 6 quick links

Technical specifications

- Weight: 1055 g
- Warranty: 3 years
- Contents of one set: 4 modules + 6 quick links

